

Canteen professional development - Financial Management training

Date: Wednesday 8 May 2019

Venue: Currambine Primary School
28 Ambassador Drive, Currambine WA 6028

Time: 6.00pm - 8.30pm

Fees: $15 WASCA members - $20 non members

Running a canteen is equivalent to running a small business. It is essential to understand the financial situation in the canteen at all times to maintain a viable business. During the financial management training, you will learn all about:

- Correctly calculating pricing for menu items
- Recipe costing
- Standardisation, portion control and waste minimisation
- Marketing and promotion techniques
- Record keeping and stock control
- Each school will be given pre-formatted templates.

You will also have the opportunity to network with other canteen staff and parent body representatives. A light snack will be provided and all attendees will receive a certificate.

Who should attend?

Canteen staff and volunteers who work in the canteen as well as parent body representatives responsible for operating the canteen.
