

Canteen professional development - Traffic light training

Date: Tuesday 24 September 2019

Venue: Endeavour Primary School
38 Endeavour Drive, Port Kennedy

Time: 9.00am - 12:00pm

Fees: $15 WASCA members - $20 non members

A light morning tea will be provided and all attendees will receive a certificate.

Traffic light training covers all aspects of the Department of Education's Healthy Food and Drink policy. Compliance with the policy requires representatives from the school to complete this course.

The face-to-face session is a great opportunity for you to have a 'health check' of your canteen menu and discuss menu ideas with other school and canteen staff.

Topics Include

- The scope of the Healthy Food and Drink policy
- Traffic light system of categorising food and drinks
- Policy compliance
- Menu planning and assessment
- Linking with the school community
- Food safety and hygiene
- Healthy recipes.

Who should attend?

Canteen staff and volunteers who work in the canteen as well as parent body representatives responsible for operating the canteen.
